a. Interest Free Period: Payment due date on your card is 18 days after the statement date and thus, interest free period from the start of the billing cycle date shall not exceed 48 days. From the date of expenditure, the interest free period on a purchase can range from 18-48 days depending on the payment due date. For instance, if statement is generated on 01 May (for spend period 01 April – 30 April), and due date is on 18 May – interest free period will be 30 days for a purchase made on 18 April (18 April – 17 May) and 20 days for a purchase made on 28 April (28 April – 17 May).

If Total Amount Due is not paid by the payment due date, then there will be no interest free period.

b. Finance Charges: Interest charges are paid at a monthly percentage rate on all transactions from the date of transaction when you choose not to pay your balance in full. On all cash advances, interest charges are applied till they are paid back. Interest charges, if payable, are debited to your credit card account till the outstanding on the card is paid in full.

II. Credit Limit, Available Credit Limit and Cash Withdrawal Limits

Credit Limit is the maximum limit up to which you are authorized to spend on the card. The available credit limit at any point of time is the remaining limit that is available for you to spend. Credit limit utilized at the time of generation of each monthly statement is provided as a part of the said statement. Cash limit forms a subset of your credit limit. The Bank will review your card account periodically and may decrease your credit and cash limits based on its internal criteria.

III. Billing

a. Statement Periodicity and Mode of Sending: Bank will send a monthly statement via email showing details of purchases and dues as on that date. The exact date of statement generation depends on the billing cycle of each customer and can be seen in the Fi app at any time. Statements will also be available via the Fi app.

b. Minimum Amount Due (MAD): Minimum amount due is calculated as 5% of Total Amount Due + EMI debits for the month + any over limit spends + all applicable, unpaid charges and fees including interest charges + GST

If you deposit part of the Total Payment Due or the MAD (not less than the MAD under any circumstance), the balance outstanding amount payable shall be carried forward to subsequent statements. This amount will attract interest charges until the date of full and final payment. Please note that paying only the MAD every month will result in the repayment stretching over a long period with consequent interest payment on your outstanding balance.

c. Methods of Payment: You can pay outstanding dues on your credit card via the following methods:

- Send money from your Federal Bank savings account opened via Fi app
- Use other payment methods provided on Fi app
- Use third party applications that allow repayment for the credit card
