CODE OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT

I. PURPOSE OF THE CODE

Corporate governance is essentially a set of standards, systems, and procedures aimed at effective, honest, transparent, and responsible management of a company within the applicable statutory and regulatory structures. This Code represents a set of desirable, corporate-governance practices to be adopted by the Bank. The Code takes into account the relevant statutory and SEBI/stock exchange listing requirements and Reserve Bank of India (RBI) directives and other guidelines under the Companies Act 2013, NGRBC guidelines by Ministry of Corporate Affairs etc. The efficacy of the Code lies in how well it is put into practice. In adopting the Code, the stress should be on its substance and spirit rather than on its form.

II. CORPORATE OBJECTIVE OF THE BANK

Good corporate governance practices help support and strengthen corporate actions aimed at achieving the corporate objective. The Bank's principal corporate objective, like that of any corporate business entity, is to perpetuate its business while protecting and enhancing, over the long term, the value of the investments of its shareholders in the Bank.

Definitions- In this Code of Corporate Governance the following terms shall have the meaning noted herein

1. Chairman shall include Non-Executive/Part Time Chairman
2. Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer (MD & CEO) shall mean the senior most executive position.
3. Management/senior management shall include MD & CEO, Executive Director(s), and Executive Management. (Executive management means personnel of the Bank who are members of core management team excluding Board of Directors comprising all members of management one level below the executive directors, including the functional heads and shall specifically include company secretary and chief financial officer)
4. SEBI-LODR Regulations, 2015 shall mean, Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and its amendments made from time to time;
5. Independent Directors shall include non-executive Directors, who, apart from receiving remuneration as Directors of the Bank, does and did not have any other material pecuniary relationship or transactions with the Bank, its management or any subsidiaries/associates, or directors which in the judgment of the Board may affect the independence of the Directors and satisfies such other criteria of independence as contained in the Companies Act, 2013/ SEBI-LODR, Regulations 2015)
6. Board of Directors means the collective body of the directors of the Bank.
7. The following definitions has been added in the Code as mentioned in the Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Acquisition and Holding of Shares or Voting Rights in Banking Companies) Directions, 2023
 - a. "acquisition" means, acquiring, or agreeing to acquire, shares or voting rights in a banking company, directly or indirectly;
 - b. "aggregate holding" means the total holding, directly or indirectly, beneficial or otherwise, of shares or voting rights by a person along with his relatives, associate enterprises and persons acting in concert with him in the Bank.

- c. major shareholding” means “aggregate holding” of five per cent or more of the paid-up share capital or voting rights in the Bank by a person;
- d. “person” means a natural person or a legal person

III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The primary responsibility for good corporate governance of the Bank rests with its Board of Directors, more so since a large majority of the Bank’s ownership is largely dispersed among thousands of shareholders resulting in virtual separation of ownership and management. The shareholders have entrusted the Board with the responsibility of overall direction, supervision and control of the Bank. The Board’s fiduciary responsibility to the shareholders requires that the Board should act in their shared corporate interest, in good faith, and with due diligence. While directing the Bank towards achieving its corporate objective, the Board should also fulfill its obligation of accountability to the shareholders, by providing them with reliable and adequate information on the Bank’s affairs and condition. At the same time, the Board should also recognize and take into account the interests of other key stakeholders identified by the Bank, such as Other Investors, Customers, Vendors suppliers & service providers, Employees, Ecosystem & Society, Government & Regulatory Authorities in which it functions. Equally important, the Board should ensure that the Bank’s policies, operations, dealings, and disclosures are in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations as prescribed by RBI, Companies Act, 2013, SEBI-LODR Regulations, 2015 etc., from time to time.

In discharging this onerous responsibility, the Board has necessarily to rely on the Bank’s executive management (i.e., the Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer, and senior officers with executive functions, whether or not members on the Board) and also the employees of the Bank for assistance and information. Accordingly, the Board expects the executive management to provide it with correct, timely, sufficient, and meaningful information on various aspects of the Bank as would enable the Board to perform its role effectively. The non-executive Directors shall have full access to the Bank’s executive and senior management but will ensure that such contacts do not distract the executives from the Bank’s business operations.

A. Functions of the Board of Directors

The main functions of the Bank’s Board include the following and is in line with the requirements of Reserve Bank of India, Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI-LODR Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time:

1. to guide, approve, and review the Bank’s corporate objectives; competitive position and strategy; operational, financial, personnel, and other policies; operational goals, business plans; and Risk appetite Framework;
2. to monitor the Bank’s performance, including effective implementation of the approved policies, strategies, and plans, and statutory and regulatory compliance;
3. to appoint and replace the Chairman, the Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer and Executive Directors (whether or not members of the Board), determine their compensation, counsel and guide them on important issues, oversee and review their performance, and plan their succession;
4. to review the utilization and development of the Bank’s human resources;
5. to ensure that appropriate internal control systems, including those relating to accounting, financial management, risk exposure and management, and statutory and regulatory compliance, are in place and are effective;
6. to monitor the adequacy and integrity of the accounting and financial reporting systems and the internal (including concurrent) audit and inspection functions;
7. to recommend to shareholders appointment and replacement of the external auditors, and interact with the auditors on their findings and concerns;
8. to oversee disclosure to shareholders and regulatory and other governmental authorities;

9. to review and guide corporate strategy, major plans of action, risk policy, annual budgets and business plans, setting performance objectives, monitoring implementation and corporate performance, assessing adequacy of capital and overseeing Recommend to the full Board for shareholders' approval major capital expenditures, acquisitions and divestments;
10. to monitor the effectiveness of Bank's governance practices and making changes as needed;
11. to select, compensate, monitor and, when necessary, replacing key managerial personnel and overseeing succession planning;
12. aligning key managerial personnel and remuneration of board of directors with the longer term interests of the Bank and its shareholders;
13. to ensure a transparent nomination process to the board of directors with the diversity of thought, experience, knowledge, perspective and gender in the board of directors;
14. to monitor and manage potential conflicts of interest of management, members of the board of directors and shareholders, including misuse of corporate assets and abuse in related party transactions;
15. to ensure the integrity of Bank's accounting and financial reporting systems, including the independent audit, and that appropriate systems of control are in place, in particular, systems for risk management, financial and operational control, and compliance with the law and relevant standards;
16. to oversee the process of disclosure and communications;
17. to monitor and review board of director's evaluation framework.

As at present, the Board shall reserve for itself the power to make decisions on certain specified matters, including those which are required under statute, regulations, RBI directives, Companies Act and guidelines, and/or stock-exchange listing requirements to be submitted to it for decision. In other matters, to facilitate and expedite decision-making, the Board may delegate appropriate authority to Committees of Directors, the Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer and other members of the executive management, or to specified other officers of the Bank singly or jointly.

B. Roles and Responsibilities of the Board

The Board of Directors shall have the following responsibilities:

1. Disclosure of information:
Members of Board of Directors and key managerial personnel shall disclose to the board of directors whether they, directly, indirectly, or on behalf of third parties, have a material interest in any transaction or matter directly affecting the Bank.
2. Members of the Board of Directors shall act on a fully informed basis, in good faith, with due diligence and care, and in the best interest of the Bank and the shareholders.
3. The Board of Directors shall encourage continuing directors training to ensure that the members of board of directors are kept up to date on latest managerial techniques, technological developments in banks, and financial markets, risk management systems etc.
4. The Board of Directors shall maintain high ethical standards and shall take into account the interests of stakeholders.
5. The Board of Directors shall exercise objective independent judgement on corporate affairs.
6. The Board of Directors shall consider assigning a sufficient number of non-executive members of the board of directors capable of exercising independent judgement to tasks where there is a potential for conflict of interest.
7. The Board of Directors shall have ability to 'step back' to assist executive management by challenging the assumptions underlying: strategy, strategic initiatives (such as acquisitions), risk appetite, exposures and the key areas of Bank's focus.

8. When committees of the board of directors are established, their mandate, composition and working procedures shall be well defined and disclosed by the board of directors.
9. Members of the Board of Directors shall be able to commit themselves effectively to their responsibilities.
10. The Board of Directors and senior management shall facilitate the independent directors to perform their role effectively as a member of the Board of Directors and also a member of a committee of board of directors.
11. In order to fulfil their responsibilities, members of the Board of Directors shall have access to accurate, relevant and timely information.
12. The board of directors and senior management shall conduct themselves so as to meet the expectations of operational transparency to stakeholders while at the same time maintaining confidentiality of information in order to foster a culture of good decision-making
13. The board of directors shall provide strategic guidance to the Bank, ensure effective monitoring of the management and shall be accountable to the Company and the shareholders
14. The board of directors shall set a corporate culture and the values by which executives throughout a group shall behave.
15. The board of directors shall ensure that, while rightly encouraging positive thinking, these do not result in over-optimism that either leads to significant risks not being recognised or exposes the Bank to excessive risk.
16. The Board of Directors should ensure that responsibilities of directors are well defined, and every director should be familiarised on the functioning of the Bank covering the following areas – delegation of powers to various authorities by the Board, strategic plan of institution, organisational structure, financial and other control systems and economic features of the market & competitive environment.

E. Composition of Board

1. The Board shall have an optimum combination of executive and non-executive directors, subject to applicable statutory requirements and RBI guidelines or directives. Not less than fifty- one percent of the total number of Directors shall be persons who satisfy the conditions laid down in Section 10 A of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 and including those specified in Circulars/notifications if any issued by RBI from time to time.
2. The Chair of the Board shall be an Independent Director. In the absence of the Chair of the Board, the meetings of the Board shall be chaired by an Independent Director. The Chairman, the Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer/ Executive Directors, shall be appointed by the Board subject to RBI's approval of the appointment and the terms thereof.
3. Not less than fifty per cent of the board of directors shall comprise of non-executive directors; (currently the maximum number of Directors being twelve as permitted by the Articles of Association of the Bank, excluding the RBI nominee, if any). The Board of the Bank shall also consist of at least one Woman Independent Director. (As required under the Companies Act, 2013/ SEBI- LODR, Regulations, 2015)
4. At least one-third of the board of directors shall comprise of independent directors.
5. The board of directors of the Bank shall comprise of not less than six directors.

F. Meetings and Attendance

1. The Board of directors shall meet at least four times a year, with a maximum time gap of one hundred and twenty days between any two meetings.
2. One-third of the total strength of the Board, or three Directors; whichever is higher, shall form the quorum for a meeting of the Board. At least half of the directors attending the meetings of the board shall be independent directors. Participation of the directors by video conferencing or by other audio visual means shall also be counted for the purposes of quorum.

A Director shall not be reckoned for Quorum in respect of an item in which he is interested and he shall not be present, whether physically or through electronic mode, during discussions and voting on such item.

3. Directors shall endeavour to attend all meetings of Board and Committee of Board of which he/she is a member.
4. The Board would welcome the attendance at Board meetings, with the Chairman's permission, of senior officers of the Bank, to offer information or clarification to the Board or respond to the Board's queries.
5. The Board would encourage the executive management to bring into Board meetings managers who can provide additional insight into matters before the Board or who are considered by the executive management to have future potential and should therefore be given exposure to the Board. The Chairman may, with the Board concurrence, invite other persons (e.g. external auditors, financial or management experts, and other distinguished personalities) to meet the Board as appropriate.
6. The Chairman shall set the agenda for each Board meeting, and include other items for discussion at the Board meeting, with the concurrence of other directors based on the powers delegated by the Board.
7. A Director may suggest the inclusion of an item in the agenda. Brief but sufficiently informative notes on the agenda item shall be distributed to the Board before the meeting (as indicated in point "e" of Board meeting Modus Operandi). Where an item is too sensitive to be put on paper, it may be discussed at the meeting, and the minutes shall reflect the sensitivity.

The agenda of the Board Meeting is drafted by the Company Secretary along with the explanatory notes on structured basis, as illustrated below, and these are to be distributed in advance to the Directors.

The first item would be the 'Minutes', the second, 'matters arising from the Minutes and follow-up action taken on matters contained in the previous Meetings etc. and the third, 'the unaudited financial statements for the month/ quarter, if any, with a budget comparison'.

Thereafter the agenda can be sectionalized for (a) policy matters (b) loans, credit and advances, (c) treasury and investments, (d) capital expenditure, (e) HR-related issues, (f) marketing and so on.

Where this is for information alone, only matters of high importance / significance will be escalated to the Board and the rest will be contained in a separate folder, for review and record purposes only.

The latter can also include sections according to business and / or activities as well as matters for information related to credit, market reports, treasury etc., including statutory, compliance and RBI-specified reporting requirements to the Board.

All other matters will be treated as "other matters of significance" or other agenda.

All divisions/ departments in the Bank are encouraged to plan their functions well in advance, particularly with regard to matters requiring discussion/ approval/ decision in the Board/ Committee Meetings. All such matters are communicated to the Company Secretary in advance so that the same could be included in the Agenda for the Board Meeting.

Anything urgent that needs to be escalated will then be termed as 'table items' and at the discretion of the Chairman, with the concurrence of other directors will be allowed to be presented at the meeting, with a clear explanation as to why the paper could not be circulated before seven days from the date of the meeting.

8. As far as feasible, the Board shall act as a whole, endeavoring to reach unanimous decisions, the Chairman playing a key role in this regard. Directors shall, however, enjoy full freedom to express their views, and where a Director is unable to go along with the majority, he shall be entitled to have his view suitably reflected in the Board proceedings.
9. As per Section 175 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 5 of Companies (Meeting of the Board and its Powers) Rules, 2016 and Secretarial Standards-1 issued by the Institute of Company Secretaries of India, the Bank may pass resolution by circulation without convening a Board meeting or a Committee meeting, as the case may be for resolutions that are regulatorily permitted.

G. Board Meeting Modus Operandi

- a. Invitation for meetings—The dates of Board/Committee meetings as far as possible for a particular period (half yearly or yearly) may be sent to Directors by the Company Secretary as approved by the Chairman of the Bank.
- b. Ordinary meetings: Notice of not less than 7 days before the date of the meeting. In case the company sends the Notice by speed post or by registered post, an additional two days shall be added for the service of Notice.
- c. Meeting frequency
Every quarter for review of financials, business performance and people development issues and at such frequency as may be required.
- d. Meeting location

- e. Duration
According to agenda of meetings; but pre-estimated and agreed with the Chairman of the Board /Committees of Board.
- f. Documentation for meeting
Ordinary meetings: Documents to be sent out at least 7 days before the date of the meeting.

Any item not included in the Agenda may be taken up for consideration with the permission of the Chairman and with the consent of a majority of the Directors present in the Meeting.

To transact urgent business, the Notice, Agenda and Notes on Agenda may be given at shorter period of time than stated above, if at least one Independent Director, shall be present at such Meeting.

All approved documents should be emailed or uploaded in e-meeting or any other application. Where required, one set of physical copies will also be made available to all Board/Committee members.

g. Minutes Finalisation

Within fifteen days from the date of the conclusion of the Meeting of the Board or the Committee, the draft Minutes thereof shall be circulated by hand or by speed post or by registered post or by courier or by e-mail or by any other recognized electronic means to all the members of the Board or the Committee for their comments.

Directors to give comments within seven days from the date of circulation of draft minutes of Board /Committees of Board. Finalisation and entry of minutes of Board/Committees in minutes book to be made within 30 days from the date of the meeting.

h. Decision-making requirements

Decision of the Board will be taken based on the decision of majority of the members of the Board including the Chairman and subject to regulatory requirements.

The Board/Committee shall also be guided by the specific details given in the Secretarial Standard on Meetings of Board of Directors issued by ICSI.

H. Information to shareholders

1. In case of the appointment of a new director or re-appointment of a director the shareholders must be provided with the following information:
 - a. a brief resume of the director;

2. The aforesaid information on the Director shall be incorporated in the annual report of the Board to the shareholders.

I. Term of office

No director of the Bank, other than Whole Time Chairman, Managing Director, Whole-time Director/Executive Director shall hold office continuously or otherwise for a period exceeding eight years on the Board of a Bank. The Independent Directors are however not liable to retire by rotation during their period of term of appointment in the Bank with requisite approvals.

After completing eight years on the Board of the Bank a Non- Executive Director may be considered for re-appointment only after a minimum gap of three years.

The Tenure of MD & CEO or WTD cannot be held by the same incumbent for more than 15 years. Thereafter, the individual will be eligible for re-appointment as MD&CEO or WTD, if considered necessary and desirable by the board, after a minimum gap of three years, subject to meeting other conditions. During this three-year cooling period, the individual shall not be appointed or associated with the bank or its group entities in any capacity, either directly or indirectly.

J. Criteria for Appointment of Directors

a) Qualifications, Experience and Knowledge

1. The Board should bring to their tasks a balanced mix of knowledge, skills, experience, and judgment relevant to the Bank's policies, operations, and needs.
