Employee Relocation:

- Our household move services include packing of all household items, transporting, delivering to the new place, unpacking, placing furniture at the correct spots and removal of debris formed due to unpacking.
- It starts with a pre-move survey of our client's space, with their belongings, followed by an accurate estimate given to our clients. This process includes providing our clients with customized solutions to their concerns.

- Our staff is quality trained in packing anything under a roof with utmost care and safety. Every piece in our clients space is important to the client and, hence, important to us. Right from a safety pin to a grand piano, fine crockeries to furniture, and every possible thing under their roof is looked upon as precious belongings and hence it is systematically packed and made sure it is placed in the container carefully.
- Our packaging material is environment friendly and reusable.
- Our highly trained staff is thorough with customs and their regulations, they are also thorough with the routes of transport which help our clients to plan their move effectively.
- Transworld International offers the most comprehensive insurance policy for our clients' belongings. It is also tailor-made to cover the costs of storage during transit which might happen before delivery.

What is in store for our client?

- Effortless door to door move for all the household goods.
- We provide with long term and short term, clean, safe and affordable storage facilities for your household requirements as well as your vehicles like bike or car. Our storage facilities are manned by professionals from security agency, they are spacious and are equipped with 24/7 CCTV surveillance, smoke detectors and fire alarms. Pest control protocols are also followed to the T. All goods are stored in closed plywood lift vans so that they are not visible.

- Based on the scope of work, we will share the commercials for each item, for your perusal.
- We are open to negotiation based on the merit of revisiting on the commercials shared.
- A final decision on commercials to be confirmed by a written communication for us to start planning.
- Once the confirmation is received and agreed by both the parties, the next step towards vendor registration or a mutual agreement can be signed by the authorized personnel.
- PO's or email confirmation to be shared well in advance before packing & Billing entity/address to be shared in prior to enable smooth invoice submission.
- Payment terms to be agreed based on completion of the job.
